Your Star Attraction.

Looking for a way to put your best food forward?

The BKI® BHI series of self-serve hot deli islands are a perfect way to display a wide range of grab-n-go hot meals and enhance product visibility. These versatile merchandisers have three independently controlled zones on the main surface and a fourth on the second tier so you can offer your customers a variety of hot deli options that require different holding temperatures.

Standard features include lighting under the top canopy, bumper around the perimeter of the display, and 4' of seamless countertop.

The top canopy serves as a non-heated shelf for products that can be held at room temperatures or as a convenient and eye-catching location for placing signage. The BHI series of hot food merchandisers are available in 4' or 5' widths.

The BHI series of self-serve hot deli islands. Perfect for making your food your front and center star.
